

Tuesday Morning Memo

Tuesday, September 22, 2009

Please share these Tuesday Morning Memos with anyone that might be interested. To subscribe or unsubscribe, or submit information to include in these memos, please send an e-mail to arcwjim@att.net.

- THE ARC-WISCONSIN ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND 60th ANNIVERSARY EVENT REMINDER: OCTOBER 9, 2009, CROWNE PLAZA, MADISON

For details and registration materials, go to: www.arc-wisconsin.org.

Thanks to the following event sponsors – we would love to add you to the growing list:

Baird/HGMR Group*
DeWitt Ross & Stevens – Alice O'Connor
Goodwill Industries of South Central Wisconsin
Milwaukee Training Initiative*
Premium Design Shop – Lisa Schell
Hynek Printing of Richland Center
Wisconsin Board for People with Developmental Disabilities
The Richland County ARC
The Hoegemeier Family
The Wittenmyer Family
(* new to the sponsor list)

- GUBERNATORIAL RACE UPDATE: CANDIDATE DETAILS

Please note that The Arc-Wisconsin does not endorse candidates for public office. The list of candidates below is meant to assist developmental disability advocates in learning more about each of the candidates.

Democrats:

Jared Christiansen – Ellsworth teenager www.jcforwisconsin.com

Barbara Lawton – current Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin www.barbaralawton.com

Republicans:

Bill Ingram – Durand businessperson www.ingram4u.com

Mark Neumann – former Member of Congress www.markforgov.com

John Schiess – Rice Lake retired businessperson www.johnschiess.com

Mark Todd – Appleton businessperson www.marktoddforgovernor.com

Scott Walker – current Milwaukee County Executive www.scottwalker.org

Independents:

Michael Blinkwitz – Neenah

James Dean Langer – Germantown

Terry Virgil – Fort Atkinson